

Pronunciation Course

1. Details: This course does not use traditional ways of teaching pronunciation, but innovative methods based on current research. It focuses on the rhythm and melody of the English language, and helps the students develop the knowledge and skills needed to be understood by native speakers and the ability to follow spoken language. To get course details, contact us.

Note: Course availability varies. Please contact us to find out if a particular course will be available when you are interested in coming

